See you there!

SACRED THREADS

Sacred Threads will meet Tuesday, June 7th at 10:00 a.m. at the church!

Elmhurst College in 1982 with a History major and another major in Business Administration. I then went on to seminary at Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago and graduated with a Masters of Divinity and 12 years later I graduated again from LSTC with a Doctorate in Missional Leadership and Pastoral Care. I have also had the opportunity to serve as a professor of Religion and New Testament (Adjunct) at Florida Southern College.

Dear Pilgrim Saints,

Since I am just getting started, I am sure it would be helpful to you to know who this person is that will be walking the Pilgrim path with you. Before I share much about me, I want to express my gratitude to those who have made me feel so welcomed. Thank you for your kindness. I am looking forward to getting to know you all better.

I am excited to work with the leadership team and staff that we may further the mission of our Lord Jesus Christ, to the least, the lost and the last. I am privileged to follow a faithful servant in the person of Pastor Alan Goertemiller and I know you miss him, even as you look forward to the future. His ministry among you is why Pilgrim has a future to move into. My hope is that I may serve Christ as faithfully.

I am Pastor Chuck Miller. I have served the mission of Christ through the church for 30 years come August. It is hard for me to imagine that the once newly ordained green horn is now a seasoned leader in the cause of Christ. I have been always open to the leading of the Holy Spirit when it comes to where I might serve. We are blessed that my wife's work as a CPA is somewhat portable. Therefore, I have accepted calls to Nebraska, Wisconsin, Florida and Indiana.

Let me start at the beginning. My father was gifted in his vocation and he started out as a controller for local department store and ended up as the controller for the entire company. Each promotion required a move, so I have lived all over the upper mid-west. We lived in a lot of places which had its advantages and its drawbacks, but I learned to adapt, as did my two younger sisters.

I attended Carthage College and graduated from

Recently I have been working on what I call, "The Ancient Future." My thesis is that with the seismic social shifts the last third of the 20th century, the church has far more in common with the 1st century church than the late twentieth century church most of us remember from our childhood and early adulthood. Therefore, the best resource for the 21st century church is not what the church was doing 20-40 years ago, but we have to most to learn from the 1st century faith communities. We will have more time to get into this later.

More personally, my wife Sue and I have been married for 37 years come August. We have 2 adult sons, Micah 28 who is married to Erin and they have our only grandchild. Unfortunately, they live in Florida. Our youngest is Stephen 25, who is nearing the end of his program to be an electrician.

We love to travel and try to get to Florida as often as possible. I also enjoy riding my motorcycle and it is likely you will see it in the lot from time to time.

Please be kind to me and continue to remind me of your name, even when you think I should have it by then. I want to get to know you better as we serve Jesus together. By the way, feel free to call me Pastor Chuck or Pastor Miller, whichever is more comfortable to you.

In the joy of the resurrection,

Pastor Chuck Miller

Pilgrim Lutheran Preschool And Parents Time Out

It is with both remorse and glee that we ended another fabulous school year. It has been wonderful to watch ‘our’ children grow and mature into more self sufficient little people. Some of our families have ‘graduated’ their last child from our program and they will be greatly missed.

We finished our year with a spring program (on May 5 & 6) that had all kinds of fabulous music. Sarah Williams and Gloria Worth have brought lots of new ideas to our music and movement classes. Our music involves counting and sequencing.

Our last story from Gloria Worth . . . Christian Story Teller for the preschool . . . Was about God’s Powerful Holy Spirit. We are so appreciative that Mrs. Worth is willing to come and share these Bible stories with our children. The children love going to see Mrs. Worth—she always brings cool props with which to illustrate her story! :)

We will start our summer day camp on Tuesday, May 31 and our last day will be Friday, June 24. During our camp we will draw, color, paint, play and play some more! We will spend a lot of time outside in God’s creation. Our summer camp is more laid back and is just a barrel of fun!

Currently, we have a few openings for fall. If you know someone who is interested, please have them call the school @ 846-6132. If there is interest in classes that are currently full, we’ll be glad to have them on the waiting list . . . sometimes things do change.

On a personal note . . . This is my last Pilgrim’s Progress article. I will retire at the end of our day camp session . . . actually, the week after that! It has been both a pleasure and an honor to have served as the director of Pilgrim Lutheran Preschool for the last sixteen years. I thank all of the congregational members who have sent their children to our preschool and to the many who came to preschool first and then joined the church and of course all of the members of the congregation who have made it possible to have a preschool here. The school holds so many memories for me: all of the wonderful staff with whom I have worked and all of the families who have passed through our doors over the past sixteen years. There have been ups and downs over the years, but it is the children who give us all of the pleasure. I am so thankful to have been given the opportunity to be the director here and to have been able to touch the lives of others. I guess I will pass on to a new phase of life and get on my traveling shoes!

The new director of Pilgrim Lutheran Preschool will be Amy Tucker who has taught here at Pilgrim for the last eighteen years. Both of Amy’s daughters attended Pilgrim . . . Back in the day (The elder daughter just graduated with honors from IU and the younger will be a sophomore at IU next fall!) Amy lives in Speedway and attends Chapel Rock Christian Church there. Amy attended Ball State and graduated with an Elementary Education degree! If you ever get the chance to drop in back our way, please greet Amy and welcome her to her new job at Pilgrim!

Thanks again to all of you who support our ministry to our young children and their families in our congregation and our community. Please continue to keep us all in your prayers.

With gratitude and thanks,

In His service,

~ Pat Goertemiller

“From the Elders”

Which Road Will You Take?

Elder's Corner

Well, it is finally June! The long Indiana winter is over. The sun is shining and the days are warm and long. School is out and it is time for vacation! Many of us are planning on road trips to the lakes, mountains, or beaches.

But which road will you take? In our family, the traditional vacation is a road trip to the lakes in northern Minnesota. But we always have to make the difficult decision whether to take the short route through Chicago, or avoid the traffic and Take I-74 through Champaign and Bloomington in Illinois. When we lived near Los Angeles in California and wanted to take a road trip to San Francisco, the decision was between the high road over the mountains through Tejon pass on I-5 or the coastal low road on US 101.

Will you take the high road or the low road?

For thousands of years, the concept of road, way, highway, or path has been a metaphor for the decision we take in our spiritual journey.....that is our walk with God. Will we believe and accept the free gift of Jesus' atoning work on the cross, live a God focused life, and enjoy eternal life on the high road? Or will we be focused on our worldly and carnal desires and walk the low road to death? The Bible and even historical literature are filled with such metaphorical references to roads and highways.

For example, following the defeat of Scotland's Bonnie Prince Charlie by the army of King George II at Culloden in 1746, an unknown Scottish poet wrote a famous song eventually called "The Bonnie Banks o' Loch Lomond." The most famous lyrics are the second chorus:

"O ye'll tak' the high road, and I'll tak' the low road, And I'll be in Scotland afore ye.
But me and my true love will never meet again, On the bonnie, bonnie banks of Loch Lomond."

Many interpret the lyrics to refer to the captured clans who were taken to London and tried for treason. Those who were found not guilty took the high road to life back in Edinburgh. The convicted were executed and took the low road (death) back to Scotland. The Bible has hundreds of references to roads, ways, highways, and paths. Recall the disciples' journey along the road to Emmaus with Jesus discussing his death and resurrection and how it was necessary for us to live. We also remember Jesus riding the colt of a donkey along the road from the Mount of Olives to Jerusalem as predicted in Zechariah 9:9:

"...thy King cometh unto thee; He is just, and having salvation; lowly, riding upon an ass."

One of my favorite Biblical references to ways and highways is the prophecy of the Lord's advent in Isaiah 40:1-4. The familiar lyrics from the beginning of Handel's Messiah are based on this scripture:

"Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned. The voice of Him that crieth in the wilderness: Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God." "Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill made low, the crooked straight, and the rough places plain."

Is the low road the easy road? I think that the pain and burdens of bad decisions and unforgiven sin are hardly easy!

Is it a great burden to follow Jesus and take the high road to life? Although Jesus says in Luke 9:23 "If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross daily, and follow me," he also promises an easy yoke and light burdens in Matthew 11:29-30. Again Handel's lyrics at the end of The Messiah Part 1 paraphrase this scripture:

"Come unto Him, all ye that labor, that are heavy laden, and He shall give you rest. Take His yoke upon you, and learn of Him; for he is meek and lowly of heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls." "His yoke is easy, and His burden is light."

As a young man, before I became a Christian, I was on the low road to death. The challenges of earthly life seemed insurmountable and the path to salvation and eternal life was unknown. But, then my life turned around when I came to know Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior. I stepped up to the high road. The path to both my earthly life and my eternal life became very clear. And I found that His yoke is easy and His burden is light.

Which road will you take?

We congratulate you on your many achievements. We send you prayers, blessings and well wishes for continued success.

BEN VEATCH is son to Craig and Karin Veatch and older brother to Evan. Ben will not be able to march with the graduating class on May 26 as he will graduate on May 19 at a special ceremony. This is due to Ben running in the Regional Track Meet. Ben has had a wonderful High School career. He is a member of the National Honor Society and he has been on the Cross Country and Track teams all four years. He has run outstanding races and he has garnered many honors accordingly: Mental Attitude for cross country, two-time Indiana Gatorade Runner of the Year, 7-time State Champion including 3 team titles, 2 individual titles in cross country and 1 individual title in track running the 3200 meters. If that is not enough Ben is hoping for more record breaking titles this month as he continues to compete. And finally he received the Cross Country Male Athlete of the Year at the Indiana Sports Awards. Well done, Ben. Ben heads off to Indiana University this fall and he will study Exercise Science with a long term goal to attend Medical School. Ben has been a member at Pilgrim for fourteen years. He fondly recalls playing Paintball with the Youth. Our prayers, blessings and well wishes are sent to you as you continue to realize your dreams.

INTERFAITH HOSPITALITY NETWORK (IHN): The IHN was established to sustain a community-wide effort to provide shelter, meals and comprehensive assistance to homeless families through the use of church facilities and the volunteer efforts of their congregational members. The assistance offered to those families by IHN then extends to the help offered by social service agencies. See www.indyihn.org. Pilgrim has budgeted $1,600 for 2016.

HORIZON HOUSE: Horizon House is a multi-service day center empowering homeless neighbors to permanently end homelessness through a variety of professional and hospitality services. Each morning, its doors open to the over 1,500 homeless in Indianapolis, affirming each neighbor as a valuable community member, offering restored dignity and a hopeful future. See www.horizonhouse.cc. Pilgrim has budgeted $1,600 for 2016.
