GAGA BALL PIT DEDICATION TODAY AT 9:30 a.m.—Pilgrim now has a Gaga Ball pit! A group of about 30 kids and parents gathered to build the pit under the fabulously organized guidance of Kevin Donley. It was a joyous occasion as the group saw their yearlong labor of love in memory of Jack Kelleher come to fruition. Thank you very much to Kevin Donley, Kevin Harriman, and Gerald Powell for being the engineers and operating the power tools--making sure the pit was soundly built. Thanks to all the kids and their parents who came to help. We had so many helping hands, we were even able to provide the Swansons with some stump removal assistance in the garden area. Please join us for the Gaga Ball pit dedication this morning between services at 9:30. The kids are very excited to share the finished project with the Pilgrim members who provided them with so much support!

WHAT'S UP WORSHIP—This Sunday is the Day of Pentecost – a high festival in the church liturgical year. We celebrate how the Holy Spirit came to the disciples after Jesus' ascension. Pentecost is considered to be the "birthday" of the early church – the time when the gift of proclamation was given to all. You will witness that global gift of proclamation in our special rendition of the scripture lesson from Acts. The image of a white dove is a traditional representation of the Holy Spirit, and during our worship we will ourselves be visited by a white dove – in kite form! Today we give thanks that God's Holy Spirit is at work in our lives and is with us always.
