MIDWEEK LENTEN SCHEDULE

March 7 (Board of Directors)

March 14 (Congregational Life)

March 21 (Elders)

Join us each Wednesday in Lent for food, friendship and worship as we follow our Lenten Journey to the Easter Vigil. Dinner begins at at 6 p.m., worship is at 7 p.m. This series includes a total of 5 Wednesdays which continues March 7, 14 and 21. Each week the provided dinner entrée will be various soups. Pilgrim members are asked to bring sides, salads and desserts. There is a sign-up sheet for each meal under the TV monitor in the church lobby. There always is plenty of food for everyone, and guests are most welcome! Donations and offerings contributed on Wednesdays during Lent meals or worship services benefit our local Gennesaret Clinics. Join us this season of Lent as we examine ourselves and seek new opportunities to heal those broken by life's circumstances. Questions? Contact the church office at (317) 846-2221 or pilgrim@pilgrimindy.org.

FROM THE ELDERS

THE IMPORTANCE OF CHRISTIAN DISCIPLINES

"Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may get the prize. And everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training. They, then, do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. Therefore I run in such a way, as not without aim; I do not fight like a man beating the air; but I discipline my body and make it my slave, lest possibly, after I have preached to others, I myself should be disqualified for the prize." (I Cor. 9: 24-27)

I always am amazed at the opening ceremonies of the Olympic Games, and this year was no exception. The unbelievable majesty and awesome effects the host countries are able to put together to thrill the audience and the participating athletes is quite a spectacle, worthy of all the hard work the individual athletes must endure to be able to qualify. But the real prize is found at the end of each competition as the gold medal winner takes the podium, receives the medal, and listens to his or her national anthem being played while tears of joy stream down the faces of all involved. A truly elite athlete doesn't just start his training a few months before the games; it is usually a lifetime of sacrifice and training that has started in childhood and during which all other endeavors – education, socialization, entertainment – are sacrificed for the purpose of transforming the athlete physically. But even with all the pomp and circumstance, the moments are so fleeting, and the prize is so temporal. Even the gold, silver, and bronze will someday tarnish and the moments of exultation will be gone.

In the scripture passage above, St. Paul sets up an analogy between the need for surrendering one's rights for the sake of others and an athletic competition. According to one commentary, "Paul may have had in mind the Isthmian Games, held every third year in Corinth, second in prominence only to the Olympic Games in Athens. Contestants had to provide proof that they had trained for 10 months, had to exercise in the gymnasium for 30 days before the games started, and only then could they compete. Only the winners received a reward, a 'perishable wreath,' which, in the first century, was made of celery and would wilt as soon as it was awarded. Paul never just indiscriminately ran laps or slapped at the air. Everything he did was calculated to make gains for the gospel. The Greek word in this verse for discipline means, “to deliver a knockout blow,” and make it my slave may reflect the practice of the victor leading his beaten opponents around the arena amidst the applause of the spectators. Paul determined to subdue his body (inside and out) to be the most effective in serving the Lord. So that, having preached to others, I myself should not be disqualified... does not mean that Paul feared he might lose his salvation if he did not adequately control himself. The disqualification here refers to forfeiting the chance to serve effectively in the great gospel mission.”

We, too, have been given the opportunity – rather, the mandate – by Christ to participate in the great gospel mission. We, too, like the Olympic athletes must take up the serious training it will take to effectively participate in God’s mission to the entire world. And, like an elite athlete, we must realize that to serve effectively will take the training of our entire self – spirit, soul, and body. As Pastor John reminded us a few weeks ago, we all will be asked to discipline ourselves during this Lenten season. Traditionally, this has involved the practice of the disciplines, such as prayer, silence and solitude, meditation under the Word, fasting, and sacrificial giving. While Jesus followers undertake these disciplines during Lent, they are not meant to be an end in themselves, nor confined to the 40 days of Lent. They are intended to help the follower of Jesus to be transformed by the work of the Holy Spirit for the express purpose of being able to effectively participate in the mission of God, to “Go and make disciples of all nations....” In order to do that, we must first take up the purposeful work of making disciples of ourselves, and that involves discipline. But Christ reminds us that to answer the call to discipleship does not mean we are to take on a self-improvement program by ourselves. No, Scripture reminds us of the forgotten truth that the transformation to Christlikeness is realized through taking on the “easy yoke” of Jesus, pulling the load with Him. True Christlikeness comes from true companionship with Christ. “Come to me all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.” May we all find purposeful rest in the yoke of Jesus during this season of Lent. Let it be so. Amen.

Susie Pike

Greetings. Wow! How do I say thank you for such a marvelous year? You all were a healing and nourishing blessing to me during 2017. As I said on January 28, "God sent you to me."

And Wow! How do I say thank you for January 28 (and January 31)? You sent me off wrapped in the same love and grace that enveloped me during the past year. Pastor Heidi is such a lucky and blessed pastor to have been called by you. Thank you, thank you, thank you!!

For all the cards and gifts, I thank you. I am so grateful for the extra deposit into my pension and for all the thoughtful gifts. As I write this, the pie is gone, one of the books is read, the Yankees hat as been worn regularly, and the bucket has been put to use.

Thank you for your love and support. You shall never be forgotten. And I am sure we will meet again. God bless your new chapter. It's going to be great!

Peace,
Rudy

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT PILGRIM...

CALL UPDATE

On Sunday, January 21, the Pilgrim congregation voted to extend a call to Pastor Heidi Schwerdtfeger-Jones who currently is serving in Dallas, Texas. We joyfully report that Pastor Heidi has accepted God's call to serve as Pilgrim's pastor! We are excited to welcome Pastor Heidi and her family, as they join us in sharing Christ's love with the world around us.

Pastor Heidi, her husband Robert and their daughter Ainsley will return to Carmel in mid-March for a house-hunting trip. Pastor Heidi and her family will remain together in the Dallas area until the end of Robert's teaching contract in June. During this time, the family will put their current house on the market, and we join them in praying that their Dallas home sells quickly. If the Lord is willing, Pastor Heidi hopes to relocate to Carmel no later than July.

Pilgrim's Board of Directors and Call Committee will continue to update the congregation with further details as the Lord guides us through this process. Pastor Steve Albertin continues to serve as Pilgrim's vacancy pastor during this interim period. Worship services will continue to be led by pulpit supply pastors as scheduled by Pilgrim's Board of Elders. Questions? Contact Greg Rexing or Chris Konow.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON LADIES BIBLE STUDY

The Thursday afternoon ladies bible study started a new session on February 22, using the participant's guide from the book Sacred Rhythms, written by Ruth Haley Barton. Even if you missed the first session, you're welcome to join in. The group meets from 1-3 p.m. every two weeks, and this study continues through May 10. If you would like to join us, contact Susie Pike at (317) 710-6981 and she can answer any questions or get you a copy of the student book ($7.95). You may order the book Sacred Rhythms itself on Amazon, but it is not necessary for the class.

CONSTITUTION UPDATE

Join us at a Voters' meeting at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday, March 4. All communicant members who are 18 or older are eligible and encouraged to attend. Agenda items will include the proposed Restated Constitution and Bylaws.

On May 6, there will be a Congregational Vote on whether to adopt the new Constitution.

Copies of the proposal are in the narthex and posted on our website. Contact Karin Veatch, Mark Tisdale, Frank Bates or John Williams, or a member of our BOD, with questions.

HELP KEEP YOUR NEIGHBORS WARM

In December Pilgrim members assembled 60 "keep warm kits" using your generous donations of cold weather items. Pilgrim members then distributed these kits to homeless people living on the street through our local Gennesaret Free Clinics. It's STILL cold outside, and we are once again collecting supplies to create another 100 kits! Donations should be sized for adult men and women. Items needed:

Warm gloves (not mittens)

Warm winter hats

Blankets/throws

New white socks

Scarves

Reusable tote bags (99¢ at Marshall's!)

You may leave your donations in the specially designated collection bin in the church lobby under the donuts table. All donations must be received by Sunday, March 4. Questions? Contact Dan Murphy or Mark Tisdale.

EASTER CHANCEL FLOWERS

The deadline to order your flowers for Easter is Thursday, March 15, 2018.

There is a sign-up sheet on the table in the narthex.

PROGRESSIVE DINNER

The Congregational Life Committee is planning a Progressive Dinner for Saturday, March 17, beginning at 4:30 p.m. Please sign up by March 11 so we can assign homes for dinner. We will be providing maps to the host home (appetizers, dinner and dessert).

NEW ADULT CLASS IN MARCH AND APRIL

Beginning on Sunday, March 11, and lasting for six weeks (not including Easter Sunday, April 1) Pastor John Roberts will lead the Sunday Adult Study, focusing on the book, Any Body There: Worship and Being Human in a Digital Age. Written by ELCA pastor and former Pilgrim Organist,

Craig Mueller, the book looks at how corporate worship can be an antidote to the distraction, fragmentation and spiritual hunger in society today.

Any Body There? We may wonder as we watch people engage with their smart phones while being oblivious to what is going on around them. Any Body There? is the question facing the church as it wrestles with declining religious affiliation. Craig Mueller considers this contemporary context, and offers a response based in an incarnational spirituality accentuating the body and incarnational expression in corporate, multisensory liturgy. If you haven't already purchased a book, they are available from Amazon for $20.

WANTED: VOTING MEMBERS FOR ANNUAL INDIANA-KENTUCKY SYNOD ASSEMBLY

Three individuals from Pilgrim are needed to attend the annual Indiana-Kentucky Synod Assembly from May 31-June 2, 2018, at the Grand Wayne Convention Center in Fort Wayne. All voting members are eligible, including youth who have been confirmed. Registration, housing and meal costs are covered by a line item in our church budget. Any Pilgrim members interested should contact Greg Rexing or Jim Williams, or call the church office at (317) 846-2221.

PILGRIM LUTHERAN CHURCH SUPER SENIORS

Pilgrim Super Seniors learned about social media during a presentation by Gail and Andrew Powell in February. Watch the narthex monitor and the bulletin for information about the March Super Seniors event.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

We are now about two weeks into the Lenten season. Lent is 40 days in length, excluding Sundays. Sundays are considered as little Easters; a celebration of the resurrection of our Lord! Why 40 days of reflection? The number 40 is symbolic for us as Christians. The number 40 pops up often for us as we recall other key events in the bible which include the number 40: Noah in the ark for 40 days; the Israelites traveled the wilderness for 40 years; and Jesus was in the desert for 40 days preparing for his own ministry on earth.

40

The word Lent actually means "springtime." We associate spring with new life, new beginnings, fresh ideas, and a brighter outlook after the dark and cold days of winter. Many of us associate Lent with a time of giving up or going without. However, we might turn that association around and think how we could better "give" of ourselves to bring new life, new growth for a fresh approach to our wintered spirit!

A way to bring our awareness to others and other needs in the world is to pray for others. Perhaps you could place a world globe in the center of your dining table. Each evening as you sit to eat, take turns having someone randomly place his or her finger on a spot on the globe. As you say your grace, remember that nation and those people in your prayer. Who knows, this may spark an interest in learning more about this place in God's world and the culture of the people. We are all God's children; taking time to pray for others near and far, known and unknown, is a good way to keep our Lenten thoughts on the needs of others.

Blessings,
Gloria Worth

PILGRIM LUTHERAN PRESCHOOL & PARENTS' TIME OUT

February was a fun and busy month here at the preschool! We started the month with not so great news from the Groundhog.... Boy, are we anxious for some warm sunny days so we can use our playground! February was the month of love and friendship as we celebrated Valentine's Day. We had fun making valentines for our family and sharing valentines with our friends. It is also a wonderful time to remember that God loves each and every one of us!

In-house registration went very well! Many classes filled up immediately and already have waiting lists. We have now moved on to open registration and do have a few openings still available depending on days and age level. If you know someone who might be interested in our program, please have them email the school: preschool@pilgrimindy.org or call the school office at (317) 846-6132.

On March 5 we will have our annual Dad's night for children attending the 4s classes. This is an evening for the students to have a special time with Dad (or another adult) and always is a big hit! The theme is "western," and we will be "panning for gold," eat dinner at the "chuckwagon," make bandanas, have a "cookie walk," play "cowboy toss" (cornhole), and even have a "barber shoppe" where the children will give dad a "shave." We always end the evening with a fun hoedown with singing and dancing. Yee-haw!

Thanks again to all of you who support our ministry to our young children and their families in our congregation and our community. Please continue to keep us all in your prayers.

In His Service,
Amy Tucker
